RE: STB Finance Docket No. 35336
YCR Corporation – Application for a Modified Certificate

Dear Ms. Brown:

On behalf of applicant YCR Corporation (“YCR”), I am submitting for filing a Certification of Service.

By this letter, YCR is amending its application to advise the Board that it has leased a line of railroad owned by Yakima County (the “White Swan Branch”) which originates at Wesley Junction at Milepost 73.6 of the Yakima Subdivision of the BNSF Railway Company at Toppenish in Yakima County, WA and continues a distance of 20.56 miles to Milepost 20.56 near White Swan, in Yakima County, WA where the line joins and continues for an additional 1.63 miles along a spur at White Swan. See, annexed Exhibit D-1, Rail Map of Yakima County, WA<sup>1</sup> and Exhibit D-2, Wesley Jct. – Interchange track for White Swan Branch. The total distance of the rail line being leased is 22.19 miles.

YCR further amends its application to advise the Board that it has negotiated and expects to shortly enter into an Interchange Agreement with BNSF imposing no interchange commitments ("paper barriers"). YCR will immediately advise the Board in the event the final Interchange Agreement differs from that which is represented herein.

We thank the Board for its consideration in accepting this amendment.

Respectfully submitted,
John D. Heffner, PLLC
